

Glory, Glory

Glory, Glory, Hallelujah, I've been washed in the blood of the lamb
Oh, glory, glory, hallelujah, I've been washed in the blood, the blood of the Lamb
Well I once was lost, now I'm found, was blind but now I see
Oh glory, glory hallelujah, I have been redeemed.

There was a time in my life, I didn't know about His saving grace
How He went to Calvary, and there He took my place
Well he sought me, 'cause He had bought me
Back at Calvary, Oh Glory, glory, hallelujah, I have been redeemed.

Glory, Glory, Hallelujah, I've been washed in the blood of the lamb
Oh, glory, glory, hallelujah, I've been washed in the blood, the blood of the Lamb
Well I once was lost, now I'm found, was blind but now I see
Oh glory, glory hallelujah, I have been redeemed.

Well I'm excited you see that the Lord set me free
And there's not a doubt
That He can do it for you if you want Him to
You see He's got it all figured out
You can have a new start; just give Him your heart
And He'll make you totally clean
Then you can join the saints around His throne one day
Where we'll all sing

Glory, Glory, Hallelujah, I've been washed in the blood of the lamb
Oh, glory, glory, hallelujah, I've been washed in the blood, the blood of the Lamb
Well I once was lost, now I'm found, was blind but now I see
Oh glory, glory hallelujah, I have been redeemed.
